NEW EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS, CHARISMS, DONATION TO CHURCH

NEW EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS: Congratulations to the new Eucharistic Ministers who have been trained by Joe Michalak, Elizabeth Trexler and Charisse Oto. They are: Isabelle Aure, Carolyn Banichar, Mary Ann Abbinante, Frances O'Neill, Cindy Pascoe, Regina Ranelli, Kathleen DiNinno, Barbara Stiffey, Cathie Snyder and Nick Oto. You have been seeing some of them at Mass already. We are grateful for their service to our parish!

CHARISMS: In the Called and Gifted Program coming to our parish on May 29th and 30th, there is particular attention devoted to the discernment of charisms among God's people. For an idea of what these charisms are, I thought it would be helpful to examine what St. John Paul II said about them in his document Christifidelis Laici (The Lay Members of Christ's Faithful People) written by him on December 30, 1988. The following paragraphs are taken from article 24 of that document which will help you understand better what charisms are.

24. The Holy Spirit, while bestowing diverse ministries in Church communion, enriches it still further with particular gifts or promptings of grace, called charisms. These can take a great variety of forms, both as a manifestation of the absolute freedom of the Spirit who abundantly supplies them, and as a response to the varied needs of the Church in history. The description and the classification given to these gifts in the New Testament are an indication of their rich variety. "To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues" (1 Cor 12:7-10; cf. 1 Cor 12:4-6, 28-31; Rom 12:6-8; 1 Pt 4:10-11).

Whether they be exceptional and great or simple and ordinary, the charisms are graces of the Holy Spirit that have, directly or indirectly, a usefulness for the ecclesial community, ordered as they are to the building up of the Church, to the well-being of humanity and to the needs of the world.

Even in our own times there is no lack of a fruitful manifestation of various charisms among the faithful, women and men. These charisms are given to individual persons, and can even be shared by others in such ways as to continue in time a precious and effective heritage, serving as a source of a particular spiritual affinity among persons. In referring to the apostolate of the lay faithful the Second Vatican Council writes: "For the exercise of the apostolate the Holy Spirit who sanctifies the People of God through the ministry and the sacraments gives the faithful special gifts as well (cf. 1 Cor 12:7), 'allotting them to each one as he wills' (cf. 1 Cor 12:11), so that each might place 'at the service of others the grace received' and become 'good stewards of God's varied grace' (1 Pt 4:10), and build up thereby the whole body in charity (cf. Eph 4:16)"(79).

By a logic which looks to the divine source of this giving, as the Council recalls(80), the gifts of the Spirit demand that those who have received them exercise them for the growth of the whole Church.

The charisms are received in gratitude both on the part of the one who receives them, and also on the part of the entire Church. They are in fact a singularly rich source of grace for the vitality of the apostolate and for the holiness of the whole Body of Christ, provided that they be gifts that come truly from the Spirit and are exercised in full conformity with the authentic promptings of the Spirit. In this sense the discernment of charisms is always necessary. Indeed, the Synod Fathers have stated: "The action of the Holy Spirit, who breathes where he will, is not always easily recognized and received. We know that God acts in all Christians, and we are aware of the benefits which flow from charisms both for individuals and for the whole Christian community. Nevertheless, at the same time we are also aware of the power of sin and how it can disturb and confuse the life of the faithful and of the community"(81).

For this reason no charism dispenses a person from reference and submission to the Pastors of the Church. The Council clearly states: "Judgment as to their (charisms) genuineness and proper use belongs to those who preside over the Church, and to whose special competence it belongs, not indeed to extinguish the Spirit, but to test all things and hold fast to what is good (cf. 1 Thess 5:12 and 19-21)"(82), so that all the charisms might work together, in their diversity and complementarity, for the common good(83).

DONATION TO CHURCH: I would like to thank Rose Madonna, a faithful parishioner and volunteer for many years at Forbes Regional Hospital. It has been a while since I celebrated her funeral Mass here at North American Martyrs Church. Recently I received a letter in the mail from her attorney saying that Rose donated $2,000.00 of her estate to our parish. She is still helping us, even after she died! I have instructed Tim Thorsen to place this money in our parish operating account to help defray our lagging offertory collections.

MEETINGS

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY will meet on Wednesday, May 27 at 7:00 PM in the Rectory Conference Room.

If you or someone you know would like to receive communion at home please contact Elizabeth Trexler at 412-374-3980.

FOOD BANK

Next weekend, May 30 & 31, the last weekend of the month, is Food Bank Weekend at both Churches. The food collected at NAM will benefit those who visit Crossroads Food Pantry of Monroeville and the food collected at St. Michael will benefit those who visit Pitcairn Food Pantry. Please deposit your non-perishable food donations in the main vestibule of either church. Working alone we are limited in what we can accomplish, but together we can continue to make a difference in helping others. Feeding those in need is a privilege and a responsibility.

ATTENTION ALL PARISH ORGANIZATION LEADERS

Come and join us in this annual celebration of the end of the 13 week Novena. If you would like to bring appetizers, casseroles, salads or desserts, please sign your name on the sheet located on the table at the main entrance of the church with the item you would like to bring.

THE MONTH OF MARY

One of the most beautiful devotional traditions in the church is that of observing the month of May as the Month of Mary. The Rosary is still a very popular prayer and we urge you to say the Rosary as often as you can. It is recited in North American Martyrs Church after the 8:00 AM Mass.

May we all take time to be reflect on the things we are thankful for as we start each week in Jesus' footsteps, bringing to mind that we are never alone in the journey as he will guide us each step of the way. Thank you for taking the time to read our first letter; tune in next week for round two! May we all grow in God's love and be grateful for all he does.
