CHURCH ALIVE

This week's issue of the Pittsburgh Catholic is being mailed to registered homes throughout the diocese to continue our study of "On Mission for The Church Alive!" The bottom line in "On Mission" is our understanding of what it means to be a disciple of Jesus in today's world and what that means to each of us. We are His disciples. As His disciples we want to make new disciples. That is our vocation, our call in this life and our mission. How can we best live that out today in our parishes? Be sure to read this informative issue of the Pittsburgh Catholic to keep up to date with "On Mission for The Church Alive!" and visit www.OnMissionChurchAlive.org.

SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY NEWS

NEIGHBORHOOD 1, ST. ISAAC JOGUES

In the first reading Peter and the apostles are brought before the Sanhedrin who questioned them, "We gave you strict orders, did we not, to stop teaching in that name?" The apostles responded "We must obey God rather than man." We see here that they were willing to put down their life because of their belief in Jesus Christ. The Sanhedrin dismissed the apostles and told them to stop speaking in the name of Jesus. They go away rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor or even death for the sake of His name. May we find the strength and trust to be more like the apostles in our day to day lives rejoicing because He is with us.

NEIGHBORHOOD 2, ST. RENE GOUPIL

John's message in today's second reading is clear: Christ is not a victim. He is the source of life and those who give themselves to Him, no matter what present trials they may endure, will conquer death with Him and find eternal reward in His Kingdom. Spend time socializing with your NAM parish family at the Italian Buffet after the 4 PM Mass on Saturday, April 23. Check the bulletin for details. Join us Wednesday April 13 at 6:45 PM for motivational speaker Gary Zimbak's presentation "The Secret of Happiness." You'll definitely benefit from his powerful and uplifting message!

NEIGHBORHOOD 4, ST. JEAN DE BREBEUF

St. John de Brebeuf was one of the first Jesuit missionaries to reach Canada. He was a hardy frontiersman and established the first mission in 1625 near Lake Ontario. He was the first of the martyrs to be killed while preaching Christianity. In 1649, the Iroquois captured the Huron village of Saint Ignatius and he was killed. His courage was admired by the young native Americans. See what is happening in your neighborhood or to get involved, Call Elizabeth at 412-374-3980.

NEIGHBORHOOD 5, ST. CHARLES GARNIER

St. Charles Garnier arrived in Canada in 1636. He, like the other martyrs, preached the faith to the Native Americans. He did much of his work in the Ossernenon village. In 1649, while working with a group of followers, he was killed by the Iroquois. To see what is happening in your neighborhood or to get involved, Call Elizabeth at 412-374-3980.

NEIGHBORHOOD 6, ST. GABRIEL LALAMANT

St. Gabriel Lalemant arrived in 1648 at Fort St. Mary in Canada. In 1649 he joined Fr. Brebeuf at St. Ignatius. They worked at the mission there attempting to convert the Native Americans to Christianity. The mission was captured by the Iroquois tribe and he was taken prisoner and killed. To see what is happening in your neighborhood or to get involved, call Elizabeth at 412-374-3980.

NEIGHBORHOOD 7, ST. ANTOINE DANIEL

St. Antoine Daniel came to see and stay in Canada in 1632. He preached Christianity to the Native Americans and started the school of our Lady of Angels in Quebec for Native American boys. Many of the Native Americans disliked the idea of their young boys being taught Christianity and the idea of a peaceful existence. One day in 1648 while he was saying Mass in his frontier chapel he was killed.

For weekly faith sharing information call Kathy at 724-327-8966.

NEIGHBORHOOD 8, ST. NOEL CHABANEL

St. Noel Chabanel came to Canada in 1643. He worked for 6 years among the Algonquin near Fort St. Mary. He disliked the cruel customs and tried to teach and show the Native Americans the Christian way. In 1649, he was killed out of hatred for the faith he was teaching to the Huron Indians.

For weekly faith sharing information call Kathy at 724-327-8966.
