

rumors, rumblings, and realities:
what's really happening in the Diocese of Pittsburgh?

This summer, come and find out what On Mission for The Church Alive! is all about.

On Mission for The Church Alive! is a diocesan-wide planning initiative in which Bishop David Zubik invites all Catholics to envision how our parishes, schools, and ministries can best respond to the changing landscape of our communities so that they remain vital centers of worship and service.

This process involves every parish and school in the Diocese of Pittsburgh. Beginning this September, you will be asked to comment on different options on how parishes and schools in your area may be re-organized. Your participation is essential.

In order to prepare for consultation, Bishop Zubik and priests from the Diocese of Pittsburgh will be hosting informational sessions over the summer to answer your questions and address your concerns.

What have you heard about On Mission for The Church Alive! so far? Be informed and fill in the gaps this summer.

Check out the other side of this flyer for the dates, times, and locations of all sessions.

Has the Diocese already made decisions?

Who are the leaders selected from my parish and what are they doing?

What the heck is a parish model?

How will I and my parish be impacted?

What am I going to be asked to do this fall?

How do we get people back to Church?

Are we replacing priests with deacons?

What's going to be different this time?
