CHURCH ALIVE!

ON MISSION FOR
THE CHURCH ALIVE!

Receive the Holy Spirit – After his resurrection from the dead Jesus appears to his anxious Apostles and, knowing their fear and uncertainty, pours forth the Holy Spirit upon them and bestows the gift of peace. For the next forty days he promises that he will be with them always and that he will send the Advocate to be with them as they will be called to continue his work in the world. Finally, after ascending to heaven, Jesus sends forth his Spirit at Pentecost to fill the Apostles with confidence and courage in order to go out to all the world to tell the good news and grow the Church. As the On Mission for The Church Alive! initiative continues to unfold we are called to prayer for a new Pentecost in the Church of Pittsburgh. This new outpouring of the Holy Spirit can bestow the peace we seek in the midst of change and planning for the future. God's Spirit can also fill us with the confidence and courage that all of us – clergy and faithful alike – will need to do our part to build up the Church and make it ever more alive! Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.

SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY NEWS

NEIGHBORHOOD 1, ST. ISAAC JOGUES

Have a nice Pentecost Sunday!! It is hard to think of an example that would explain what Christian life would be like without the Holy Spirit. The closest comparison would be to picture the chaos that would come if language, verbal and non-verbal, were suddenly to cease existing. We can only begin to imagine the sense of hopelessness we would experience not being able to communicate with even one other person. We would be unable to accomplish much of anything. The sense of isolation would be unbearable. Love, appreciation and belonging would not be able to be expressed or received. Needs would not be able to be communicated nor could help be provided. Communication would change life beyond recognition. Pentecost Sunday celebrates the Father and Son's gift to us of the Holy Spirit. Similar to the above example, the Holy Spirit is what makes us Christian. To appreciate the Holy Spirit's presence, we want to think for a minute of what life would be like without Him, if history was suddenly turned back, and the Holy Spirit was removed. How would our Christian life be different? Scary, isn't it? How can we more fully express our appreciation for the Holy Spirit on Pentecost Sunday? We can do this by fully opening our heart. This month's small faith group schedule has been changed. There is a meeting at 7:00 PM tomorrow at Marilyn Colosmo's house. Call her at 412-373-5983 if you need directions or to let her know that you are coming. John and Lauren Mizik, Team Leaders, 724-454-8755 or 724-396-0420

NEIGHBORHOOD 2, ST. RENE GOUPIL

"The Holy Spirit has great gifts to give you for the asking, like Wisdom, Understanding, Knowledge, Counsel, Fortitude, Fear (of offending) of the Lord, and Piety." Who wouldn't want these gifts, which, by the way, are sorely lacking in today's world? As we celebrate Pentecost Sunday, we pray for the Holy Spirit's gifts and fruits to make us better Catholics by our word and example. Neighborhood #2 wishes to congratulate all the young adults who will receive the sacrament of Confirmation tomorrow evening. We share in their joy as they become spiritual adults. This is their last sacrament of initiation and we pray that they receive the grace to live their lives as Christians, boldly and without shame. Cathie Snyder, Team Leader, 412-372-8951,

NEIGHBORHOOD 3, ST. JEAN DE LALANDE

Congratulations to our recent college graduates. Molly Michele George earned a Registered Dental Hygienist with a Bachelor of Science degree from Pitt. She is now employed full time in McCandless and for Dr Houy. Proud parents are Greg and Michele and grandparents are Bernie and Eileen Filar. Kim Mignogna graduated from Slippery Rock with a BS degree in Healthcare Administration and a minor in Information Technology. Proud parents are Krista and Rich and grandparents Skip and Betty Logan. If you have an upcoming birthday, anniversary, or prayer request and would like it mentioned in a future article or have any other suggestion or request, please feel free to contact any team member or me at galiamarty@verizon.net.

NEIGHBORHOOD 4, ST. JEAN DE BREBEUF

St. John de Brebeuf was one of the first Jesuit missionaries to reach Canada. He was a hardy frontiersman and established the first mission in 1625 near Lake Ontario. He was the first of the martyrs to be killed while preaching Christianity. In 1649, the Iroquois captured the Huron village of Saint Ignatius and he was killed. His courage was admired by the young native Americans.

NEIGHBORHOOD 5, ST. CHARLES GARNIER

St. Charles Garnier arrived in Canada in 1636. He, like the other martyrs, preached the faith to the Native Americans. He did much of his work in the Ossernenon village. In 1649, while working with a group of followers, he was killed by the Iroquois.

NEIGHBORHOOD 6, ST. GABRIEL LALEMANT

St. Gabriel Lalemant arrived in 1648 at Fort St. Mary in Canada. In 1649 he joined Fr. Brebeuf at St. Ignatius. They worked at the mission there attempting to convert the Native Americans to Christianity. The mission was captured by the Iroquois tribe and he was taken prisoner and killed.

NEIGHBORHOOD 7, ST. ANTOINE DANIEL

St. Antoine Daniel came to see and stay in Canada in 1632. He preached Christianity to the Native Americans and started the school of our Lady of Angels in Quebec for Native American boys. Many of the Native Americans disliked the idea of their young boys being taught Christianity and the idea of a peaceful existence. He was killed one day in 1648 while he was saying Mass in his frontier chapel.

NEIGHBORHOOD 8, ST. NOEL CHABANEL

St. Noel Chabanel came to Canada in 1643. He worked for 6 years among the Algonquin near Fort St. Mary. He disliked the cruel customs and tried to teach and show the Native Americans the Christian way. In 1649, he was killed out of hatred for the faith he was teaching to the Huron Indians.
