“LESSONS FROM AN ICE CREAM SUNDAE”: by Courtney Vallejo (from March/April 2018 Shalom Tidings)

The other day my two oldest children got to go to a professional basketball game and I was left with the tricky choice of sending my 5 year old or keeping him home. He so badly wanted to go, and I wanted him to have that memory, but we were also on vacation and he would be getting to bed so late. I did not want to risk him being drained the next few days. After days agonizing over it, going back and forth about whether he would always remember the time he did not get to go, in the end I decided he should not go. I kept him with me and in an attempt to make his night memorable I told him we were going to get ice cream sundaes.

We were staying with my aunt and she lived down the street from a Dairy Queen. I imagined this being an amazing drive thru adventure. As we were about to leave, I mentioned Dairy Queen in to her and she informed me that they had closed. The look of horror on my face sent her into hysterical laughter. My plan was failing! The options were the cheap drive-thru or the expensive ice cream shop. Needing to save face I decided on the expensive one. As we drove by the cheap one, he saw it, and begged for us to go there. There is nothing special about that one: in fact, I never really like their sundaes—but to him, it is a treat. I asked him if he wanted the expensive one but he reaffirmed his desire for the cheap one.

Realizing this was about him and his memories, I settled for the cheap drive-thru. Later, as I thought about the event, I compared it to the choices and plans God has for us. He always wants to give us the absolute best! He wants us to feast on what will fill us at a deeper level, yet we are quick to jump at the scraps, and settle for the drive-thru. If my son had let me pick the ice cream for him, he would have gotten a two-scoop sundae made from fancy ice cream flavors complete with whipped cream, nuts and a cherry. Instead, he got some flavorless vanilla soft serve with M&Ms. Maybe he is teaching me a lesson on humility but I think it is bigger than that. He went with what was familiar. He did not take the risk of the place he was unsure. He settled with the safe choice. What if I am settling with the safe choice? What if I am not taking those risks in life that God is offering me? How can I know if I am settling or if I should demand more?

My plan to “distract” him ultimately did not work because he woke up the next morning asking why he did not get to go to the game! Ugh, the life of a parent! It got me thinking. I really want to show my children how to discern their choices, weigh their options and, most importantly, learn to listen to that nudging parental push from God, encouraging us to choose the best!

What steps do you take in your discernment process to ensure you are making the best choice? (Courtney Vallejo is a Catholic wife and mother who lives in California. She and her husband are raising and home-schooling their three adopted children. She holds a master’s degree in film production and a California multiple subject teaching credential. She also writes for her own blog, courtneyvallejo.com.)

SCHOOL NEWS

The NAM School office will be closed in July and will re-open in August with hours from 9:00 AM-12:00 PM.

FIRST SATURDAY MASS

One of the messages of Our Lady of Fatima to the three shepherd children, Lucia, Francesco and Jacinta, was to promote the Communion of Reparation on the first Saturday of five successive months. We have begun the celebration of the First Saturday Mass at 9:00 AM at North American Martyrs Church. This monthly Mass will continue indefinitely as long as I am pastor here. If there happens to be a funeral Mass on a first Saturday of the month, then the 9:00 AM Mass will be canceled and the funeral Mass will serve as a substitute for it.

MEALS ON WHEELS

Do you have 1 to 2 hours per week or per month to deliver meals to members of your community? Bring a friend and share this experience. Volunteers are also needed to assist in the kitchen. We are accepting new clients as well. St. Paul's Meals on Wheels is located in Pitcairn. Our service area includes Monroeville, Pitcairn, Level Green and Trafford. For more information call Cheryl at 412-856-8388 or Dan at 412-372-9116.

CHURCH ALIVE!

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE!

Preserve the Unity of the Spirit through the Bond of Peace – Saint Paul's letter to the Ephesians, from which the second reading at Mass this weekend is taken, emphasizes the unity of the Church. It is not written solely to the Christian community in Ephesus, but to the worldwide Church united to Jesus Christ her head and shepherd. Yet this focus on unity is not out of concern for the Church herself, but instead as the means for making God's plan of salvation known throughout the world. Some ask how the changes the On Mission for The Church Alive! initiative is bringing about can lead to growth and strength for the Church of Pittsburgh. The answer is that we are being invited to work hard and pray even harder to be united in faith as we come together to form new parish communities. There will be challenges ahead, but let us listen to the wisdom of Saint Paul as we "bear with one another through love" and focus our hearts on what unites us in faith: "one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all. Visit onmissionchurchalive.org to learn more and to stay informed.

SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY NEWS

NEIGHBORHOOD 1, ST. ISAAC JOGUES

This week's Gospel is about the infinite possibilities God can do with little beginnings. Jesus' ministry demonstrates God's power to create and multiply food to meet people's needs. For instance, the Israelites were saved from starvation by manna from heaven. In this week's first reading, we saw God multiply a small portion of bread and corn sufficiently enough to feed a hundred hungry men. In many of today's readings, there was more food left over than when they began. Can God create something out of nothing, and multiply a little bit into the needed amount? The answer is without question, "Yes!" However, the question we should ask is, "What is the lesson that we should learn?" One lesson may be that we should not discount the impact of our little contribution. Let's become like little children in our faith and once again nourish the belief that: "There are infinite possibilities in little beginnings, if God is in it, if God is in it...."

John and Lauren Mizik, Team Leaders, 724-454-8755 or 724-396-0420

NEIGHBORHOOD 2, ST. RENE GOUPIL

In today's Gospel, Jesus shows us that we don't have to have a lot to give for Jesus to use for the maximum result. If we offer the little we have in the service of Christ, there is no calculating what He can do with us and through us. We may be shy because we do not have more, but that is no reason for failing to offer what we have.

Cathie Snyder, 412-372-8951, Veronica Benson, 412-373-7853

NEIGHBORHOOD 3, ST. JEAN DE LALANDE

Team Leader: Marty Galia, 412-380-4681, galiamarty@verizon.net.

NEIGHBORHOOD 4, ST. JEAN DE BREBEUF

St. John de Brebeuf was one of the first Jesuit missionaries to reach Canada. He was a hardy frontiersman and established the first mission in 1625 near Lake Ontario. He was the first of the martyrs to be killed while preaching Christianity. In 1649, the Iroquois captured the Huron village of Saint Ignatius and he was killed. His courage was admired by the young native Americans.

NEIGHBORHOOD 5, ST. CHARLES GARNIER

St. Charles Garnier arrived in Canada in 1636. He, like the other martyrs, preached the faith to the Native Americans. He did much of his work in the Ossernenon village. In 1649, while working with a group of followers, he was killed by the Iroquois.

NEIGHBORHOOD 6, ST. GABRIEL LALEMANT

St. Gabriel Lalemant arrived in 1648 at Fort St. Mary in Canada. In 1649 he joined Fr. Brebeuf at St. Ignatius. They worked at the mission there attempting to convert the Native Americans to Christianity. The mission was captured by the Iroquois tribe and he was taken prisoner and killed.

NEIGHBORHOOD 7, ST. ANTOINE DANIEL

St. Antoine Daniel came to see and stay in Canada in 1632. He preached Christianity to the Native Americans and started the school of our Lady of Angels in Quebec for Native American boys. Many of the Native Americans disliked the idea of their young boys being taught Christianity and the idea of a peaceful existence. He was killed one day in 1648 while he was saying Mass in his frontier chapel.

NEIGHBORHOOD 8, ST. NOEL CHABANEL

St. Noel Chabanel came to Canada in 1643. He worked for 6 years among the Algonquin near Fort St. Mary. He disliked the cruel customs and tried to teach and show the Native Americans the Christian way. In 1649, he was killed out of hatred for the faith he was teaching to the Huron Indians.
