FR. AL ZAPF FOR THE SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT:

In the Gospel of St. Luke, John the Baptist enters the scene. He is fantastic, clad in animal skins, and with fire in his eyes. He comes straight out of the wilderness, after years of struggling with his vision and demons in the desert. With power in his voice he proclaims: 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths. Every valley shall be leveled and every hill shall be made low. The winding roads shall be made straight and the rough ways made smooth, and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.' We are there in our hearts listening to the Baptist. How can we heed his call and respond best so as to be really, really prepared? How can we prepare in each parish, in our Grouping to prepare for people who will join our community to celebrate Christmas? Maybe we can dedicate ourselves to the ministry of HOSPITALITY, by reaching out with joy and charity, and saying a 'MERRY CHRISTMAS' to all. Advent is a joyful time of expectation, waiting in hope for the coming of the Lord. God bless you and I wish you JOY. Fr. Al +

CHURCH ALIVE!

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE! Prepare the Way of the Lord – This Second Sunday of Advent we hear the call in the Gospel to “Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths. Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill shall be made low.” This is a vivid reminder that, as God desires to be with us, so must we work to prepare our hearts and our lives to be places where he desires to dwell and that are fitting for his coming. While this preparation can take on many forms, Saint Luke reminds us of one important way, “repentance for the forgiveness of sins.” As Catholics, we repent of our sins and are forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and Advent, the season of preparation, is a perfect time to celebrate this beautiful sacrament and ready our hearts for the coming of the Lord. This Tuesday, December 11th, The Light Is On For You! at parishes across the Diocese of Pittsburgh from 6:00-9:00pm and priests will be available to hear Confessions. No matter how long it has been since you last went, consider taking this opportunity to prepare your heart this Advent.
